

SHOULD I BOOK DION FOR MY EVENT OR GROUP?

When should I submit your name for a program?	When your audience is ready for inspiration and enthusiasm delivered with compassion, empathy and humor that is truly directed at helping attendees grow personally and professionally with wisdom gleaned from life, not data research. When your audience wants to grow personally and professionally based on self- and mutual-respect, and human interaction and connection.
What is the best audience for Dion?	Sales team members, leadership members, volunteers, support members and relationship builders.
What is Dion best known for?	Genuine engaging stories, passion and compassion, humor, enthusiasm and optimism.
Under what topics should Dion be listed in our database of resources?	Sales; leadership; morale building; team development; wisdom in life; communications; and, creativity.
What is most unique about Dion?	Dion has spent a life in creative endeavors (photography and writing) and nearly three decades in fundraising/relationship building/management. Of all his career steps, he sees the greatest value in his role as father. He has written photography books, as well as "Listen to Life: Wisdom in Life's Stories," and "Daddin': The Verb of Being a Dad."
What does Dion bring to an audience, i.e., how does he relate to them?	Dion adapts his presentations to his audiences, including adapting to things he learned from attendees prior to the speaking engagement, up to the minute he takes the mic. His authenticity and genuineness, as well as his humor helps bridge to the audience and between audience members.
When would Dion NOT be the best fit?	Dion is not suited to audiences that believe all answers can be found in research, data gathering and data analysis.
What are the results of Dion's presentations? What do audiences say about him?	Attendees will be motivated and inspired, and they will have the tools to use their new-found insights. Audiences cite his knowledge, interaction, humor, enthusiasm, passion and authenticity.