(Examples of discussion starters by matching Scripture with book quotes)

Mat 3:17 This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.

Mark 12:31 The second is this: "Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these."

Ge 2:2 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work.

Eph 4: 31-32 Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

I have no more control over this/Than my heart beating or/My lungs taking in breath. / My boy comes into my view / And I smile / And swell with pride and love.

To my boys, I say, "It is really about living...living with arms and eyes open to opportunity, to change, to discovery, to love. Love your life and those in it; love your spouse and your children; and don't forget to love yourself. You're amazing men, and the magic is in the living."

Let's play!
Whatcha say?
Today?
Okay!
You and me
Your dad and thee
Let's see
What we see
Take a walk
Around the block
Never stop
Never stop enjoying you
Never stop being true
I love you
Yes, I do.

I've caused you hurts / And made you laugh / And together we grew, you and me / Struggling together / Struggling apart / Like the life struggling in a seed / Living our lives / Living our dreams / Always believing in what's to be / I've always loved you / As only a father can / You'll always be a treasure to me.
