Scroll Ten – The Salesman's Prayer

Oh creator of all things, help me. For this day I go out into the world naked and alone, and without your hand to guide me I will wander far from the path which leads to success and happiness. / I ask not for gold or garments or even opportunities equal to my ability; instead, guide me so that I may acquire ability equal to my opportunities. / You have taught the lion and the eagle how to hunt and prosper with teeth and claw. Teach me how to hunt with words and prosper with love so that I may be a lion among men and an eagle in the marketplace. / Help me to remain humble through obstacles and failures; yet hide not from mine eyes the prize that will come with victory. / Assign me tasks to which others have failed; yet guide me to pluck the seeds of success from their failures. Confront me with fears that will temper my spirit; yet endow me with courage to laugh at my misgivings. / Spare me sufficient days to reach my goals; yet help me to live this day as though it be my last. / Discipline me in the habit of trying and trying again; yet show me the way to make use of the law of averages. Favor me with alertness to recognize opportunity; yet endow me with patience which will concentrate my strength. / Bathe me in good habits that the bad ones may drown; yet grant me compassion for weaknesses in others. Suffer me to know that all things shall pass; yet help me to count the blessings of today. / Expose me to hate so it not be a stranger; yet fill my cup with love to turn strangers into friends. / But all these things be only if thy will. I am a small and lonely grape clutching the vine yet thou hast made me different from all the others. / Verily, there must be a special place for me. Guide me. Help me. Show me the way. / Let me become all you planned for me when my seed was planted and selected by you to sprout in the vineyard of the world. / Help this humble salesman. / Guide me, God.
